

I respectfully object to this panel's decision to close these proceedings to the public. As the Court well knows, these cases are of vast public importance as they represent a dispute over the government's powers in the prosecution of individuals and entities accused of supporting terrorist organizations. As a member of the news media, I urge the Court to reconsider. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Joe Palazzolo

Reporter, Main Justice
www.mainjustice.com
1707 N Street, NW
Washington, DC 20014